58 author must submit a final draft of the legislation to the Secretary no later than 3:30pm on the Friday prior to a regular
59 meeting. Legislation not submitted prior to this deadline will not be included in the agenda.
60

61 Section D: Article 4
62

63 Section D.1 Whereas, Article 3 of the CGS Bylaws currently reads as follows:
64

65 Article 3: Parliamentary Procedure for Discussing Legislation
66

67 Section 3.1: According to Article 7, Section 1 of the Council's Constitution, the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order,
68 Newly Revised governs all meetings of the Council except where conflicting with the Council's Constitution or Bylaws.
69 Consideration of legislation before the Council shall follow the rules set forth below.
70

71 3.1.A Proposing Legislation - Legislation may be brought before the Council by the Executive Board, any standing
72 or ad hoc committee of the Council, or by any voting member of the Council. In order for legislation to appear on 73 the Council's agenda, the author must inform the President that legislation will be brought forward two weeks prior 74 to a Council meeting. The legislation must be submitted in proper format to the Secretary one week prior to the 75 Council meeting. Legislation not presented to the Council in proper format in time to make it in the meeting packet
76 will be removed from the agenda.
77

78 3.1.B Main Motion - Proposed legislation, in order as listed on the Council's agenda, may be read to the delegate
79 body by one author. At the discretion of the author, a full reading of the legislation may be waived. Legislation may 80 only be considered during the Old and New Business portions of a Council meeting.
81

82 3.1.C Second Needed - A second will be needed from the general body to continue for legislation brought by a
83 voting member. The second can be given by calling "second". Any legislation sponsored by the Executive Board, or 84 any standing or ad hoc committee of the Council. Committee-sponsored legislation is considered automatically
85 seconded.
86

87 3.1.D Author(s)' Rationale - The author(s) will have two minutes to state why they are proposing the legislation.
88

89 3.1.E Questions for Author(s) - The delegate body may ask the author(s) questions concerning the main motion for a
90 period of five minutes.
91

92 3.1.F Debate - After the question period has ended, debate begins. The debate period is ten minutes. Debate will end
93 if no speaker is waiting for the floor, when time expires, or when someone calls for a vote.
94

95 3.1.G Motion to Extend - The time for the question period or debate period may be extended when time has expired
96 if the delegate body deems it necessary. To extend, someone will need to make a motion to extend, a second is
97 needed, no debate is accepted, and a two-thirds majority vote is needed to pass the extension. Discussion may be
98 extended for a maximum of 20 minutes. After this time, if a motion is not made to move into a vote, the legislation
99 will automatically be tabled until the next delegate meeting.
100

101 3.1.H Amendments to the Main Motion - Amendments can be made at the time of debate only. The amendment
102 should be articulated to the Council and then submitted in writing to the Chair. Upon receiving a second,
103 deliberation on the amendment begins with the author(s) rationale and proceeds through debate. Amendments can 104 be amended.
105

106 3.1.I Moving into Voting - When debate has ended, the Council moves into a vote on the main motion, unless an 107 objection is raised. If there is an objection, then a vote is taken (without debate and requiring a two-thirds majority 108 to pass) to decide whether to end debate and move on to a vote on the issue being discussed.
109

110 Section D.2 Whereas, the information contained in this article needs to be updated to reflect the new procedure for casting
111 and recording votes passed this year (Resolution 2021-013).
112

113 Section D.3 Whereas, the governing documents of CGS do not adequately address the rules for debating legislation when 114 meetings are conducted on a virtual platform; and

115
116 Section D.4 Whereas, it is deemed that rules for virtual meetings are needed to ensure that legislation is debated in a fair
117 and efficient manner; therefore

118
119 Section D.5 Whereas, the parliamentary procedure described in this article applies to all motions made during meetings,
120 not just motions related to discussion of legislation.

121
122 Section D.6 Therefore, this article will be renamed to “Parliamentary procedure for delegate meetings.”

123
124 Section D.7 Therefore, a new section addressing parliamentary procedure for virtual meetings will be added to this article.

125
126 Section D.8 Therefore, Article 3 of the CGS Standing Rules will now read as follows:

127
128 Article 3: Parliamentary procedure for delegate meetings

129
130 Section 3.1 According to Article 7, Section 1 of the Council's Constitution, the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order
131 Newly Revised governs all meetings of the Council except where conflicting with the Council's Constitution or Bylaws. In 132 addition, the following rules shall be followed when considering legislation.

133
134 3.1.A Main Motions - The mover of any motion that appeared on the agenda may waive the reading of the motion.
135 Any motion that was not included in the agenda must be read in full.

136
137 3.1.B Seconding Motions - Any motion to adopt legislation sponsored by the Executive Board or any standing or ad
138 hoc committee of the council does not need a second.

139
140 3.1.C Author's Rationale - When a motion is made to adopt or amend legislation, up to two minutes may be taken by 141 the author(s) to provide rationale for their legislation or amendment after receiving a second, but prior to the 142 chairperson stating the question.

143
144 3.1.D Question and Discussion Period - When a motion is made to adopt legislation, members may informally ask
145 questions of the author(s) for a period of up to 10 minutes. During this period, the author(s) may informally make 146 modifications to their motion at the suggestion of members. Suggestions for modifications that are not agreed to by 147 the authors may be brought up as an amendment during debate.

148
149 3.1.E Stating the Question - At the conclusion of the Question and Answer period, the chair must state the question.
150 Once the question has been stated, the mover is not able to make modifications to the motion without consent of the 151 body.

152
153 3.1.F Debate - The time allotted for debate on a single question shall be 10 minutes. Debate should be limited to the 154 merits of the pending question. No member may speak more than twice on a given question including the mover.

155
156 3.1.G Motion to Extend - The time for the question period or debate period may be extended when time has expired
157 if the delegate body deems it necessary. To extend, someone will need to make a motion to extend, a second is 158 needed, no debate is accepted, and a two-thirds majority vote is needed to pass the extension.

159
160 3.1.H Secondary Motions (Amendments) - Amendments can be made at the time of debate only. The amendment
161 should be articulated to the Council and submitted in writing to the Chair. All amendments require the consent of 162 the body.

163
164 3.1.I Ending Debate - Debate shall be ended when the time has expired or when no member desires the floor. When 165 debate ends, the chair shall put the question and announce the vote.

166
167 Section 3.2 Delegates will cast their vote via Carmen quiz or other online polling system. Alternates will cast their votes by 168 communicating directly with the Secretary if they do not have access to the online voting system.

169

170 Section 3.3 Voting data will be compiled by the Secretary for each piece of legislation voted on during each delegate
171 meeting, including the name of the delegate, their unit of representation, and their vote. This data will be appended to the end
172 of the meeting minutes before they are publicly distributed and the total vote counts will be documented on the final pieces of 173 legislation before they are publicly distributed.
174

175 Section 3.4 It is recommended that the Council consider virtual platforms or other alternatives to in-person meetings for the 176 summer term in order to encourage continued delegate participation. When CGS is conducting meetings using a virtual 177 platform, the following rules shall apply:
178

179 3.4.A An online platform should be selected that allows easy access for all members of the CGS body, as well as for 180 graduate student guests. At a minimum, it should have the following features:

- 181 • The ability to “Raise a Hand” or similar functionality
- 182 • A “chat box” or other similar functionality to submit text in writing
- 183 • The ability for the chair to “Share Screen” or other similar functionality

184
185 3.4.B The chair of the meeting shall respect the potential for delay in internet connectivity by waiting for an 186 appropriate amount of time before moving on to new business.
187

188 3.4.C In general, members of CGS should leave their microphones muted except to make a motion or when the 189 member has been recognized to speak by the chair.
190

191 3.4.D In general, members of CGS should refrain from using the chat functionality during periods of formal debate
192 except to make a motion or when the member is not able to use the microphone and has been recognized to speak by 193 the chair.
194

195 3.4.E When an author is reading the text of proposed legislation, the chair of the meeting should display the text of 196 the proposed legislation using the “Share Screen” functionality.
197

198 3.4.F When a second is needed from the general body, a member may do so by unmuting their microphone and 199 calling “second”, or by writing “seconded” in the “chat box”.
200

201 3.4.G When the delegate body is asking questions of an author, members should use the “Raise Hand” function to
202 indicate they are waiting to ask a question. Once a member has been recognized by the chair, they may either 203 unmute to ask their question, or put their question in the “chat box”.
204

205 3.4.H In accordance with Robert’s Rules of Order, debate should be limited to the merits of the pending question.
206 Members should use the “Raise Hand” function to indicate they would like to be recognized. Once a member has 207 been recognized by the chair, they may either unmute to speak, or express their position in the “chat box”. Once a
208 member has spoken twice, they should refrain from using the chat box or raising their hand while another member
209 who has not spoken desires the floor except to make a new motion.
210

211 3.4.I When a member motions to make an amendment, the member should include the text of the amendment in the
212 “chat box”.
