COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN ECOLOGY

CENTER FOR INCLUSION, DIVERSITY & ACADEMIC SUCCESS (IDEAS)

The Center for IDEAS in the College of Education and Human Ecology at The Ohio State University is proud to announce the annual Diversity Research Forum, which will be held on Tuesday, April 22nd from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM in Hale Hall located at 154 W. 12th Avenue. The theme for this year's event is "Fostering Belonging for Excellence in Learning Environments." We invite proposals from undergraduate and graduate students to present across a variety of formats (e.g., papers, posters); proposals may be based on high-quality class projects, preliminary or completed thesis/dissertation research, independent research, or any other scholarly works. To submit a proposal, go to: <http://go.osu.edu/b6q>

The proposal submission system is NOW open and will remain open until the deadline. All proposals must be submitted by 11:59 PM EST on March 5, 2014; no exceptions will be granted. If you have questions about the annual Diversity Research Forum or the proposal submission process, contact Zak Foste, Graduate Research Associate in the Center for IDEAS, at foste.1@osu.edu. Decisions will be made in early March and participants will be notified of their status by no later than March 15th.

The Center for IDEAS is excited about the opportunity to bring together collective talents from across our College and the University, as part of the annual Diversity Research Forum. This event is another important way we fulfill our mission to foster inclusion, promote diversity, and ensure academic success of all individuals touched by education, through our primary activities: research, outreach, and advocacy. We hope to see you on April 22, 2014 at the annual Diversity Research Forum!
